61st Wyoming Legislature ★ 2011 General Session

HJ0008, Sharia law.

Sponsors: Representative(s) Gay

Comments

A proposed constitutional amendment to prohibit Wyoming courts from considering international or Sharia law. Violates the right of parties to contract as they see fit. It violates the state and federal supremacy clauses regarding treaties.

This bill recognized the importance of our national sovereignty and that we do not want to loose our freedoms to international government.
