Comments

This repeals the mill levy supplement for school districts. Effectively it makes school districts less reliant on the state. It also forces them to tax locally. I believe that the politicians who hand out the goodies should be the ones to levy the taxes, not some other level of government.

N: This cleans up the tax code a bit by repealing language that sunsetted in 2011.

Weighted Rating: 1.00. Unweighted Rating: 1.00.
