Comments

Modifies the process for filing liens. One major win is removing the requirement for a social security number in favor of "[a]n approved unique identification number of the debtor". Given the insecurity and ubiquity of SSNs, this is a win for privacy and security against identity theft.

U: May have administrative impact. By and large cleans up and/or updates language associated with the buying and selling of agricultural property. No obvious liberty impacts.

Weighted Rating: 0.50. Unweighted Rating: 0.50.
