Comments

Creates a process for dealing with special elections when the county clerk and canvassing board cannot determine the outcome of an election. This bill allows for calling a special election only for the precincts which are in doubt. A frugal measure, if nothing else.

U: This bill has administrative impact that appears to increase duties or responsibilities of one or more state agencies and may impact agency spending or staffing requirements. This bill updates and clarifies the procedures for declaring all or part of election results null and void and the management and process of the ensuing special election. Does not appear to have significant Liberty impacts.
